ADULT LITERACY WEEK

FEB 14 - 21, 2009

Contest for Arizona Adult Learners

Arizona Adult Literacy Week is an annual, statewide event celebrating adult literacy and lifelong learning in Arizona communities. This year, adult learners are invited to submit an artistic entry. Selected entries will appear on a variety of websites, including the Arizona Association for Lifelong Learning (AALL); the Arizona Department of Education – Adult Education Services (ADE-AES); Arizona State Library, Archives & Public Records; and Valley Metro during the 2009 event.

Contest Rules

1. Who Can Enter: Any adult learner or group of adult learners currently enrolled in an adult education class/program in Arizona.
2. Theme: "I'm In Love With Learning"
Adult Education students choose their category, create something using the contest theme, and submit their entry before the deadline, January 15, 2009.
3. Adult Education students may apply as many times as they wish - use one application per item entered.
4. Language: Applications and artwork must be in English.
5. Release: The release on the back of the application form must be signed to qualify.
6. Ownership: Contest entries usually remain the property of the contest organizing group. However, in this case, every attempt will be made to return the original artwork.
7. Selection Process: A panel of five judges (one representative from each partner and one guest judge) will select entries that may be posted on multiple websites.
8. Notify Winners: Winners will be notified through Adult Education Program contact information as provided on the application.
9. Send Entries To: "I'm In Love With Learning" Contest
Carnegie Center
1101 W. Washington Street
Phoenix, AZ 85007
10. Entry Due Date: Thursday, January 15, 2009
